Hymns & Spirituals

Do you remember a parent or grandparent singing hymns or spirituals as they tended to their daily chores, or just went about their daily business? This concert will feature some of our most beloved hymns including several settings of Amazing Grace as well as many well-known African-American spirituals; one of the uniquely American choral genres. Our special guest artist for these concerts will be Swedish soprano saxophone phenomenon, Anders Paulsson.

Saturday, 29 October 2011, 8.00pm

Through a Poet's Eye

Artistic Director Donald Krehbiel has put together a fascinating program of music based on poetry and prose, primarily secular in nature. The featured works on this program will be Pulitzer prize winning American composer Dominick Argento's multi-movement piece "I Hate and I Love", for chorus and percussion, based on the love poetry of Gaius Valerius Catullus (84-54 BCE) considered one of the first great love poets, and Benjamin Britten's masterpiece "Hymn for St. Cecilia", based on the text of Auden. Percussionists Drew Lang and Gregory White join us for this program.

Saturday, 18 February 2012, 8.00pm

Expressions

This concert features three masterpieces by three renowned composers: James MacMillan, Peteris Vasks, and Herbert Howells. MacMillan's powerful Mass for choir and organ, Howell's Requiem for soloists and eight-part choir and Vasks' haunting Dona Nobis Pacem, are the only works on this program. Virtuoso organist Michael Shake will join us for this program.
